

Consigning Contract

Thank you for deciding to consign your items with FlipBack, you have made a wise choice. We will do our very best to display and sell your pre-loved items. When you bring your clothing items in to consign, we will select what our customers are buying. Sometimes there are items that we cannot sell. Please understand that our customers' preferences must guide our selections.

Here's how it works:

- Prices are set by FlipBack
- Consignor will receive 40% of the sale price (excluding taxes & buyers fee)
- A buyer's fee will be added to the price tag of each item. That fee is passed on to the buyer and will not be reflected on your inventory list.
- Items are reduced at FlipBack's discretion
- Consignment period is 60 days
- Unsold items must be picked up within 7 days after they expire or they become property of FlipBack. It is your responsibility to monitor the end of your term & you will not be notified by us when consignment period ends. If not sure, please feel free to call us.
- Unsold items are then donated to the deserving local charity CADV. (All donated items are tax deductible. A tax receipt available upon request)
- PAYMENT- Checks are written at the end of the 60 day consignment period. It is up to the consignor to initiate the payment process by calling ,emailing or requesting a check in person.
- Consignors my use the money in their account as store credit for 50% of total earnings.
- We will do our best to safeguard your items, but we are not responsible for damage or loss
- Consignor represents and states that she/he is the owner of any goods placed for consignment and that the goods are free of lien or other claims and saleable.
- Once you have established a consignment account with us, you may take advantage of our convenient Drop & Run arrangement. (Ask us about it)
